What is New?

Buffalo States Equity and Diversity page now features two calendars. 1. Traditions and Religious Observations. 2. Celebrations and Awareness Days. Both can be accessed at: <https://equity.buffalostate.edu/calendars>

IF YOU NOTICE THERE IS A TRADITION, CELEBRATION, HOLIDAY OR AN AWARENESS DAY THAT IS MISSING, DO NOT HESITATE TO EMAIL THE OFFICE: eeoequity@buffalostate.edu

Beyond Boundaries Film and Discussion Series LAST ONE OF THE FALL SERIES

The movie for this film and discussion is The Disappearance of Shere Hite (2023.) Shere Hites bestselling book, the Hite Report, liberated female sexuality by revealing the most private experiences of thousands collected via anonymous surveys. Her findings rocked the American establishment and conversations about gender and sexuality. This event will be held at the Burchfield Penney Art Centers Tower Auditorium November 21, 2024 at 7:00 p.m. It is FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC!

Heritages Being Celebrated This Month

National Native American Heritage Month & National American Indian & Alaska Native Heritage Month

In 1990 Congress passed and President George H. W. Bush signed into law a joint resolution designating the month of November as the first National American Indian Heritage Month (also known as Native American Indian Month). For more information, visit:
